

Arrival of the Great Western.

The Great Western, Captain Hanks, arrived on Friday, the 12th instant, at New York, in twelve and a half days from Liverpool. From the New York Sun, and the English papers, we gather the following items:

The Liverpool papers are still complaining of the abundance of money—the unhealthy superfluity of it in the mercantile world, while interest can only be obtained from bankers to the extent of two per cent, the money holders will run to stocks, railroads, &c., foreign and domestic.

The English papers are filled with accounts of murders as our own are.

Mr. Edward Everett, the American minister, has written a letter to the New Farmer's Journal, to contradict the statement reported to have been made by Mr. Joseph Hume, M. P., at a meeting of the Anti-Corn-law League in Drury Lane Theatre—namely, that "at a public meeting held in September last, at which the Duke of Rutland presided, Mr. Everett, the American minister, stated that bacon which would bring 61 per pound here, was actually used as fuel for steam-boats with them, having no way for getting rid of the superfluity."

The discussion of the right of visit, or the right of search—call it which name you like, for in America the terms are held to be identical, while in England they are held to be very dissimilar; has been revived with vigor, contingent upon the arrival of Mr. Webster adheres, with becoming pertinacity to his views which every one on this side admits to be ably sustained; and the British Government depend upon it, will adhere with no less pertinacity to theirs. But the question, after all, is rather abstract than practical; and, with the honesty of purpose which Mr. Webster claims for the United States in putting down the slave trade, cannot be productive of any collision.

DEATH OF THE DUKE OF SUSSEX.—The death of the Duke of Sussex, who expired at his apartments at Kensington, on Friday, the 21st instant, about half past 12 in the day, has excited more than ordinary attention. For some days previous not the slightest hope was entertained of his recovery, and the fatal termination of his illness, though it excited little surprise, has been productive of an almost universal feeling of regret at his loss. The journals most opposed to the liberal politics of the Duke, express the highest respect for his amiable character and a becoming estimation of his scholarship and attainments.

The Royal Highness, Prince Augustus Frederick, was the ninth child and fifth son of George the Third, and was born the 27th of January, 1773, being consequently about seventy years and three months old at his death.

The Duke was twice married, although neither of the marriages received the sanction of the Royal Marriage Act. First to Lady Augusta de Armand Murrey, at Rome, in April, 1793, which marriage was declared null by the Prerogative Court, in August following. The issue of this marriage are: Sir Augustus d'Este, born January 14, 1794, and Ellen Augusta Mademoiselle d'Este, born August 11, 1801. Lady Augusta Murrey survived her separation from her illustrious husband until March, 1830. The Duke's second wife, Lady Cecilia Gore, daughter of the Earl of Arran, survives his Royal Highness; she was created Duchess of Inverness, March the 30th, 1840.

The Duke of Sussex was through life the constant encourager (as far as his means allowed) of learning and science, and the patron of all deserving aspirants in the work of art—as well as the benevolent supporter of most of the various charities which adorn and distinguish the British metropolis.

BIRTH OF A ROYAL PRINCESS.—Her Majesty Queen Victoria has graced the British nation with another Princess. This event was made known through the columns of the metropolitan papers on the 25th inst.

Judging of what may, by what has occurred, there seems every chance of Mr. O'Connell's wish being gratified, that the Queen should have as many children as his grandmother—two and twenty!

ILLINOIS STAY LAW.—The following is an extract from the recent decision of Judge Douglass of Illinois, in which he decided how far the recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in the case of Brownson vs. Kinzie goes:

That decision goes upon the principles that the mortgage vests the legal title in the mortgagee, subject to the equity of redemption; that the laws in existence at the time of the execution of the mortgage are part of the contract, prescribing the condition upon which that legal title may be divested or the equity of redemption extinguished; and that any subsequent law changing that condition, varies the terms of the contract without the consent of the parties. Admitting the correctness of this doctrine as applicable to mortgages, the reason upon which it is founded, does not apply with equal force to ordinary judgments. The mortgage is made a specific lien upon the property by the contract of the parties; the judgment becomes so only by operation of law. This is the extent of which the case of Brownson against Kinzie has determined these laws to be unconstitutional, and beyond this point the Circuit Courts of this State ought not to go so long as our own Supreme Court holds a different doctrine.

From the N. O. Bulletin of May 11th. Victory of the Yucatan Patriots—Surrender of the Mexican Invaders!!

By the schooner Sarah Ann Jane, Capt. Coffin, which arrived from Sisal last evening, we have received the latest news from Campechy and Merida. The Mexican force of 2,000 men, which advanced on the latter town with a view to its capture, has been discomfited by the patriotic Yucatecos, and has surrendered at discretion. The brave, but mild victors, permitted the invaders to depart without their arms for their own country, if they would do so shortly, otherwise they were to be held and treated rigorously as prisoners of war. The Independent of the 25th ult. justly remarks, that the laurels which the Dictator of Mexico hoped to win in Yucatan, have faded as prematurely as those he gained at St. Jacinto. At Merida, after the enemy had surrendered, there was bills and suppress, ringing of bells, firing of cannon, and every demonstration of rejoicing that was indicated by John Adams after the declaration of our independence. It was believed, that there being no vessel at Telchack to convey the Mexicans out of the country, they would be conducted to the interior as prisoners of war.

The Yucatan troops at Telchack, it seems, have captured the Lieutenant and part of the crew of the steamer Montevideo, who went on shore for water; leaving that vessel with scarcely able-bodied men enough to navigate her.

COMMODORE MOORE ARRIVES.—A gentleman who came passenger in the Jane, who saw in Merida on the 31 instant, informs us that on the 2d an express arrived from Campechy with the information that Com. Moore had arrived off the coast, and that on the 27th ult. while becalmed off the harbor of Campechy he was attacked by the two Mexican steamers, and that he beat them off and entered the harbor without damage.

COMMERCIAL.

St. Louis, May 23. Since our notice of the market on Friday, some changes have occurred which require attention. Flour has advanced to $3.50 for good country brands, and $3.75 for best city mills. The receipts have been light and the stock on hand is necessarily limited. The article may therefore be said to be quite firm, with rather an upward tendency. Wheat we continue to quote at 62 cents. The receipts for this market are moderate. A lot of 10,000 bushels arrived yesterday, destined for the Cincinnati market.

We hear of a sale of 2,000 pigs of lead yesterday at $26, which is an advance on former quotations. Holders are firm, but buyers do not now seem to be very eager to operate, though an additional advance seems to be confidently expected by persons engaged in the trade.

We have also to note an improvement in the price of hemp. Sales were made on Saturday at $3, and a superior lot sold yesterday at $3.50. We now quote at $3 a 35 lb; and the demand is good.

Bacon and lard are selling at 14 a 15 lb cask; and 12 cents a yard, and 5 cents per lb, each.

Considerable sales of bacon have been made at shoulders 2, sides 3, hams 4, hog round 3 cents. This article is in demand.

Since Friday morning 7 boats have departed for New Orleans with full freight; and 3 for the Ohio. Produce is still arriving freely; but there has been some falling off in the last week. The New Orleans boats go out full, but freight is becoming less abundant and our quotations on Friday are barely maintained.

The advance which has taken place on flour, hemp, lard, &c., must have a salutary influence on business.

CINCINNATI, May 18. Mess pork is generally held at $7.50. Some lots not of the highest grade could probably be bought at $7.25 which we think is as low as any lots can be picked up in market.

Of clear pork there is but little on hand. It can be bought for $8 a 25.

Bacon hog round is pretty brisk. We noticed a sale of 100,000 lbs. yesterday at $4—also a sale of 10,000 lbs. common hams from first hands at 47c for Vicksburg—and 20,000 lbs. sides, in prime order and quality at $4. The stock sides is well known to be small in all Western markets, so large was the proportion rendered into lard last winter.

Strictly prime lard is in request at 54 a 54c. We noticed a sale yesterday of 218 kegs at 54c; but there is very little offering. Someholders of a choice article of lard lard expect to realize a large advance on this price before September. The stock of No 1 at New Orleans is known to be not large.

Flour.—The market has been rather inflated the past week, prices having gone up on Friday as high as $3.50. This was above the rate, at which it would bear shipping to New Orleans or any eastern market, and was chiefly owing to a steady daily demand for the Louisville, Nashville and Lexington markets.
